He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Richmond and is a certified public accountant.

"I am confident that Terry's multi-faceted experience across a wide range of industries and his tenure as our Vice President of Finance have prepared him well to serve as our Chief Financial Officer," said Brian O. Casey, President and Chief Executive Officer of Westwood. "We implemented a succession planning process internally a few years ago to provide opportunity for continued career growth and increased responsibility for our talented team members. We have complete confidence in Terry and our accounting and finance team to execute a seamless transition."

"For the past four years, Tiffany and I have worked together to build an experienced and cohesive group of accounting and finance professionals. This feels like a natural progression for our group, and I am excited for the opportunity to lead our team," said Terry Forbes.
